

The SAW Project is excited to announce our quarterly newsletter in which we share the latest criminal justice updates about supervision around the world.

Thank you for your support!

Featured News:

New Zealand

New Zealand's indigenous people, the Māori, are over-represented in the country's prison population. Key initiatives are underway by the Ministry of Justice in collaboration with the Māori, community groups, and business to design long-term solutions that work for future generations.

United States

We had such an amazing time presenting at the APPA's Winter Regional Training Institute in Los Angeles, California. Special thanks to the American Probation and Parole Association for having us!

Singapore

At the SAW Project, we believe in countries continuously working to better their criminal justice

Nigeria

Hope Behind Bars Africa and Legend Golden Care have unveiled an initiative to accelerate justice reform system. A great example is the Singapore Prison Service launching a study to understand the cost and benefits of imprisonment and alternatives such as community sentences. Read more about it in this article from The Straits Times.

in Nigeria. They plan to address issues such as congestion in correctional facilities, long-wait times for trials, as well as kickstart community service programs.

Follow our social media for more supervision news coverage:

2 Minute Insight Series:

We recently had the pleasure of interviewing Julia-Anna, a Project Manager in Bremen, Germany. For more of this series click here.

2 Minute Insights:

Irving Civic Organization

Julia-Anna B.
Project Manager
Bremen, Germany

85

Get involved! Support collaboration in the global supervision industry by joining, or nominating someone to join, our 2-Minute Insight Series at the bottom of this page.

Recent Blog Posts:

April 6

Second Chance Month

April is Second Chance Month, a time to bring awareness to the challenges faced by individuals who have been incarcerated. Successful reintegration into society can be better supported with needed policies and programs that support successful reintegration into society. Read the blog post here.

Internationally, we share a common interest in learning from each other and are better with collaboration. We need your support to continually encourage collaborative efforts that improve global outcomes. Donate to the SAW Project to help spread best practices in community supervision worldwide.

Donate Now

Do you like the newsletter? Share it!

Supervision Around the World Project

<https://sawproject.org/>

You received this email because you signed up to be notified of updates from the SAW Project.

Unsubscribe

