

Welcome to the latest edition of our quarterly newsletter.

Thank you for being an integral part of our community!

Featured Posts

Pilot Program

About three months before release, New Zealand inmates are paired with Momentum community mentors who assist them in obtaining essential documents, employment, and housing. Post release, the program provides ongoing support with reintegration back into society.

Reintegration

After 30 years in prison, Luis "Suave" Gonzalez co-hosts the Pulitzer Prize-winning podcast "Suave" on Futuro Media. He now inspires inmates to reintegrate into society through literacy and personal growth.

Global Restorative Justice

Recent International Research

From the United Kingdom, Tim Chapman explores diverse concepts for restorative justice programs grounded in evidence-based practices with Joe Arvidson on 'The Criminologist'

Global Prison Trends is an annual report from Penal Reform International that discusses alternatives to imprisonment. One finding is that non-custodial sentences for women, coupled with safe community participation, can reduce re-offending.

Follow our social media for more supervision news coverage.

Event Updates

The American Probation and Parole Association's 48th Annual Training Institute held recently in New York City brought together Julie Truschel, Executive Director of the SAW Project, Veronica Cunningham, Executive Director of the APPA, and Juliana Carbanaru, Vice President of the Confederation of European Probation. The robust event assembled line staff and decision-makers to find practical solutions for creating a more innovative, transformative workforce in community supervision.

Recent Blog Post

Punitive Populism

In recent years, the criminal justice system has been a topic of intense debate and reform efforts. As the term 'punitive populism' arises, join us in considering the concept of this term, its consequences, and the need to steer criminal justice reform in a more rational and humane direction.

View the blog post here.

Donate

Internationally, we share a common interest in learning from each other and are better with collaboration. We need your support to continually encourage collaborative efforts that improve global outcomes. Donate to the SAW Project to help spread best practices in community supervision worldwide.

Donate Now

Do you like the newsletter? Share it!

Supervision Around the World Project

<https://sawproject.org/>

You received this email because you signed up to be notified of updates from the SAW Project.

Unsubscribe

